This piece can be performed or read by one actor or a group using a fun character voice for each flower's comments as we journey with them through their day.

THE GARDEN THAT NATTERS

'Good morning to you Rose,'
said the Daisy blowing her nose.

'Ready for early morning tea?'
shouted out an Anemone.

'Come on sun it's so cold,'
shivered the Yellow Marigold.

'Today there's a lot to fit in,'
muttered the rare White Lupin.

'There's people for us to see.'
'To see us,' corrected the Sweet Pea.

'We must look our very best,'
confirmed the Poppy as she dressed.

'Oh dear! This manure does stink,' interrupted the Pink.

"It'll make us all look lovelier," explained the elegant Buddleia.

Don't put me into a posy, not yet,'
panicked the Shrinking Violet.
